Volunteers Needed

Deep Spring Center is organized and operated by many volunteers, who give their time and energy towards creating and sustaining the center.

Please help by offering your services, talents and interests. Volunteering is a great way to share your expertise, develop new skills, and connect with people in the sangha.

Volunteer opportunities are many: infrequent small jobs, such as posting flyers, mailing newsletters, helping at a retreat, and even washing windows; special projects, such as working on Dharma, social or fundraising events; and longer-term commitments, such as serving on a committee or handling on-going jobs. DSC's office manager and Barbara can always benefit from assistance.

To volunteer, please contact the volunteer coordinator, any Board member, the primary contact of the committee in which you're interested, or the office manager.
